

Shakespeare's Birthplace

and Family Homes

Map

and

Guide

Shakespeare
birthplace trust

Content Information

1

Shakespeare's Birthplace

At least an hour visit

2

Shakespeare's New Place

At least an hour visit

3

Hall's Croft

Up to an hour visit

4

Anne Hathaway's Cottage

Up to 2 hours visit

5

Mary Arden's Tudor Farm

Up to a day visit

6

Map

Find our properties

You can buy an annual pass

to visit

all

5

five properties.

shakespeare.org.uk

Shakespeare's Birthplace

and Exhibitions

Visit

the Shakespeare Centre

+

learn about his life

+

works.

See

Shakespeare

memorabilia,

artwork

+

a timeline of his life.

You can read from

Shakespeare's

1st

folio.

Visit

the house where Shakespeare

was born

+

and grew up.

Visit

his father's glove making workshop.

Speak to our guides,

watch our actors

perform

+

and join in.

Buy

gifts

in the world famous

Shakespeare

bookshop.

Don't miss

our guides

in costume

telling stories about

Shakespeare.

Shakespeare's New Place

Walk in Shakespeare's footsteps and look round his family home.

Enter through the gatehouse, where Shakespeare's front door used to be.

19

Shakespeare lived here for the last nineteen years of his life.

You can see beautiful gardens and the knot garden.

You can see amazing sculptures in the gardens.

Visit the exhibition and learn about Shakespeare's life.

You can dress up and watch animations about Shakespeare.

Don't miss Shakespeare's Chair and Desk in the gardens.

Hall's Croft

Shakespeare's first daughter was called Susanna.

Susanna married Master John Hall, a physician.

They lived in an expensive home called Hall's Croft.

You can see paintings and fine furniture.

Walk around the beautiful walled garden.

or

You can enjoy lunch or afternoon tea in our cafe.

You can buy gifts in our shop.

Don't miss the fragrant medicinal herbs in the garden.

Anne Hathaway's Cottage

Learn about Shakespeare's love story with Anne Hathaway.

They courted here before they were married.

See antique furniture and the Hathaway bed.

13

Learn about the thirteen generations of the family that lived here.

9

Wander around nine acres of woodland, orchards and gardens.

You can see amazing sculptures in the gardens.

You can enjoy coffee and a cake in our cafe.

Don't miss the family activity tent, open at certain times in the year.

Mary Arden's Tudor Farm

 Visit
  a Tudor farm
  and meet
  our guides
  in costume.

 You can see them cook
  and eat a Tudor dinner everyday.

 Explore twenty three acres of farmyard, woodland
  and meadow.

 You can see
  the farm animals,
  a falconry display
  and craft demonstrations.

 You can try horse grooming
  and goose herding.

 The farm supplies all our cafes
  with organic produce.

 You can enjoy Tudor food
  in our cafe.

 Don't miss
  the Tudor dinner
  and falconry display.

